1983 Quadrangle Dedication

It is with great honor that the 1983 Quadrangle Staff and Senior Class dedicate the 1983 Quadrangle to DR. SAMUEL G. HORNSBY, JR. Dr. Hornsby began teaching at LaGrange College in 1966, and since then he has worked diligently to make significant contributions to his profession. He is presently the Chairman of the Department of English and Division of Humanities. Dr. Hornsby received his Bachelor's of Science in Education and Master's of Arts from the University of Georgia. He then earned his Ph.D. from Auburn University. Dr. Hornsby is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Omicron Delta Kappa, and twice recipient of grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Above all, he is 41 and still love the way I make a living."

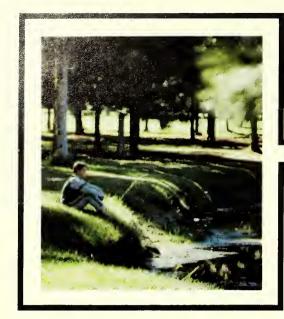

Dedication/3

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence.

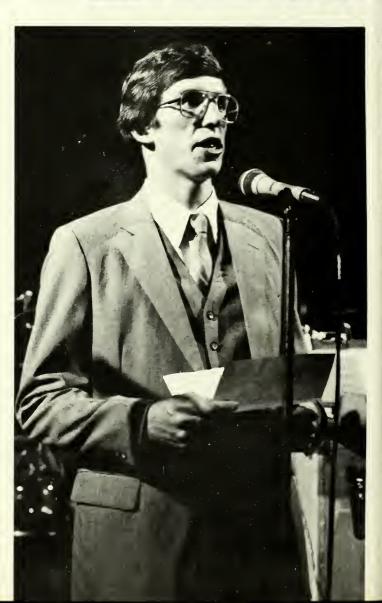

As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even to the dull and ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexatious to the spirit.

If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain or bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals, and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as perennial as the grass.

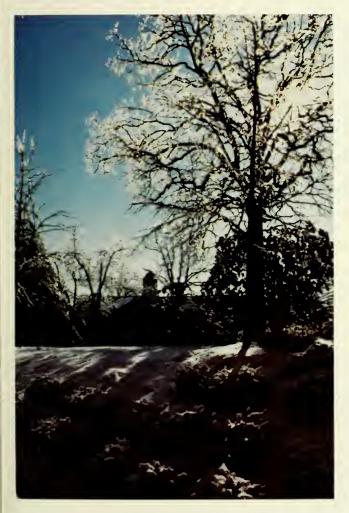

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth.

Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.

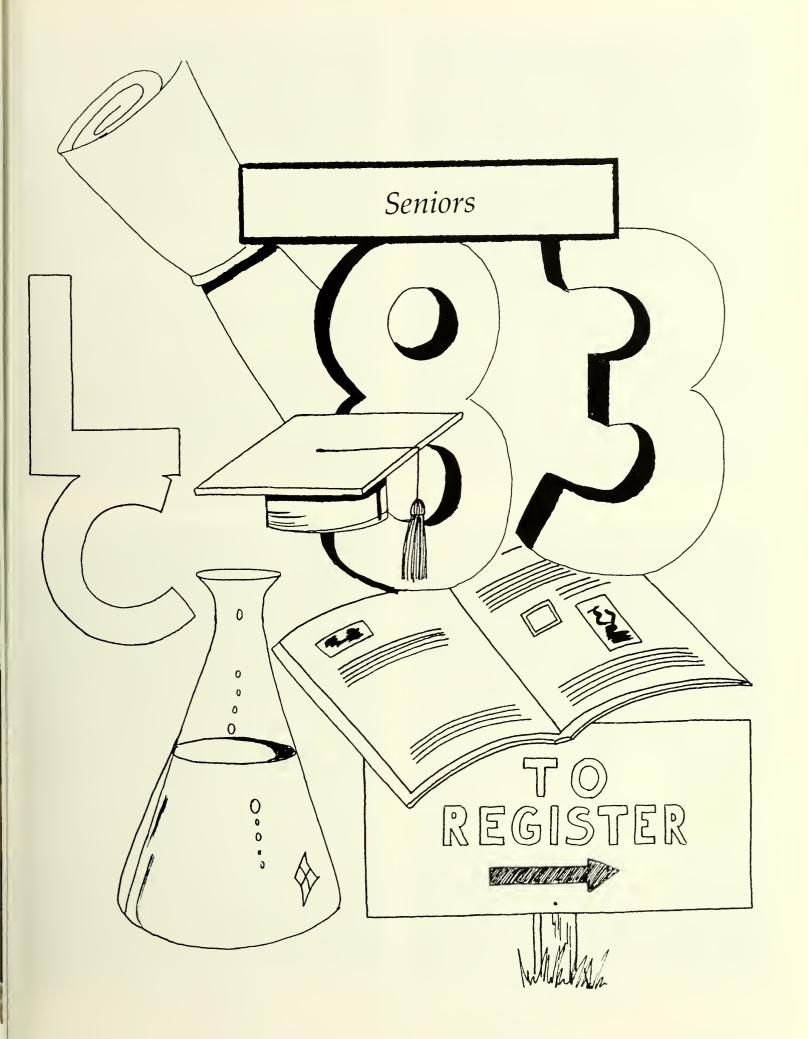

And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

College life begins with a challenge — one to get involved. Involvement on the Hill is stimulated by friendships, religious organizations, sports, academics, and the Greek life. Each provides a means by which we satisfy our interest and provide ourselves with a sense of security. The more we become involved, the more we get from life on the Hill.

Involvement — the key to a happy and successful year at LC.

May Day

The 1983 May Day festivities proved to be spectacular fun and enjoyment. The weather was excellent, and the sound of music filled the air. Queen Lora Smith and King Wayne Johnson led the way for a beautiful court. Moms and dads from all over Georgia (and elsewhere) came to join the pride and spirit of May Day on the Hill.

Among the competition of step singing, a sense of unity prevailed to enhance the thrill of victory and accomplishment. This year's May Day began and continued the traditions of springtime on the Hill.

LaGrange College Cheerleaders

The 1983 Cheerleading Squad took on a new look this year as male students were allowed to try out for the team. With the aid of these welcomed additions, the team was able to perform more dynamic and challenging stunts and cheers. Part of their training came from attending a summer camp in August. This year's squad provided the catalyst for student involvement and enthusiasm during home Basketball games, and good moral support and encouragement to the Basketball team at away games.

La Grange College Drill Team

Sitting: Joann Dillard and Dayna McKay; Kneeling: Melanie Miller, Carol Armstrong, Sandy Johnson, Melissa Sessions, Laura Gomez, and Dana Hall; Standing: Cathy Cooper, Kim Nichols, Melanie Faith, Beth Steel, Shirley Smith, and Lisa Ellenburg.

The 1983 LaGrange College Drill Team captured the spot light of halftime festivities at most of the home Basketball games. With much creativity and enthusiasm, they went to extremes to provide memorable routines, including a Valentine's Day special!!

LaGrange College Panthers

LaGrange College finished the 1982-83 basketball season as the number one team in the NAIA District 25 play-offs. Under the leadership of Coach Hugh Corless, the Panthers tied with North Georgia College for the championship of the GIAC. The LC Panthers ended their season with an overall record of 18-7 and a conference record of 12-2. Sam Cotton, Mitch Hanson, and Jerome (Rock) Woodyard served as tri-captains for the 1982-83 season.

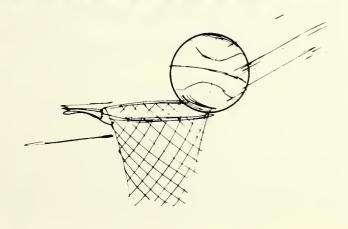

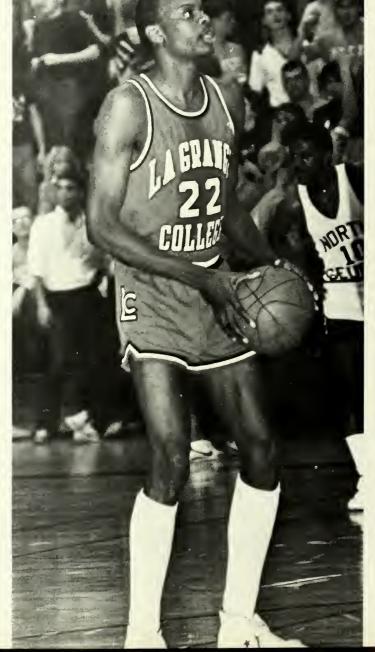

134 | Basketball

The Panthers not only excelled as a team this year, but they also managed to excel individually. Jeff Cotton was named to the 1982-83 NAIA All-America second team and was named College Basketball Player of the Month for Small Colleges. Ken Alexander was named NAIA District 25 Player of the Week and recipient of the Al Mariotti 110% Award. Coach Hugh Corless was named 1983 Coach of the Year by the GIAC and NAIA District 25 divisions. It is evident that the mighty Panthers of La-Grange College have a lot of pride for their school and sport. Let's keep the spirit alive and go all the way next year!!

Women's Volleyball

Kneeling: Jamie McCann, Pam Sharman, Gerri Wright, Tara Tyler, and Andrea Funk. Standing: Melody Jackson, Lisa Ballew, Ronda Holloway, Katherine Keith, Coach Jan Hogan, Andree Robinson, Connie Martin, Rene Eller, and Dianna Trieglaff.

Jan Hogan, women's athletic coach, stepped into the 1982 varsity volleyball season with strong determination and enthusiasm. This being the second year for varsity volleyball and only four players returning, Coach Hogan endeavored to lay the foundation for building a good program through fundamentals, abilities, and experience on the court. Although the team faced strong opposition throughout the season, they played excellent ball. They finished the season with three wins and eleven losses; however, they placed fourth in the District 25 Tournament. The leading scorers for the Lady Panthers were Jamie McCann (91) and Lisa Ballew (90).

In regular season play, LC defeated Oglethorpe University two out of three matches, Spelman one out of two matches, but fell to Mercer of Atlanta, West Georgia, Augusta College, and North Georgia College.

Augusta College, and North Georgia College.

The women's varsity volleyball team has a bright and successful future ahead of them. They are no longer "new" to the collegiate circuit and should be bringing home the District title very soon.

Kneeling: Lee Washam, Stu Marshall, Tony Evans, Il-Sung Chi, Ibrahim Warrayat, Masato Nagai. Standing: Coach Craig (Foot) Deloach, Joel Loveless, Mark Grantham, Phil Dodson, Scott Dezell, Baron Browning, Cary McCallum, Robie Pitts, and Mark White.

The 1982 men's varsity soccer team, in its second year of collegiate competition, worked hard to improve their playing abilities through drills and game experience. The season did not prove to be a statistical success, but it did shed light on areas of improvement that will lead to championships in the future. Craig DeLoach has begun an encouraging program for LC. He has chosen to pursue his graduate work at La-Grange while coaching the soccer team. As a former graduate of LC, it is obvious that he is very interested in the athletic program, and willing to help it grow.

Never in its century and a half of rich history has the LaGrange College campus been more vital and exciting. The College is dedicated to the task of helping each student develop fully his or her potential and seeks to incite in each a love of learning and to encourage a commitment to human values and an appreciation of the beauty and excellence of the arts. Its liberal arts curriculum is designed not only to enable the students to acquire a knowledge of facts, and to develop skills needed for a meaningful career, but also to help students understand themselves better, develop a view of the world that makes sense out of life, and meet the challenges of a rapidly changing world with a sense of purpose, confidence, resourcefulness, and creativity.

Quadrangle

EDITOR'S NOTE

Being editor of the 1983 Quadrangle has been a very demanding yet rewarding job. The pressures and frustrations of deadlines, photo sessions, scheduling, and layout design tend to take the glamour out of any publication; however, the end result is always worth the time and effort. This year's book is intended to help you reflect and reminisce the feelings, thoughts, and events of 1983. Hopefully, you will enjoy reviewing its pages for years to come.

Yearbook publishing is not intended to be a one-manjob, and I am thankful for the many people who contributed their time and energy to make 1983 a successful year for the Quadrangle. It is my hope that a new burst of enthusiasm has been sparked and greater pride taken in putting together a yearbook.

Now that I look back at the year gone by, I can only smile at my successes and failures. I hope that you, too, can find at least one picture or word to smile about. Thank you for the opportunity to re-create 1983 for you.
